For Press, Radio and TV . . .

This is your 1966 TIPS ON THE TIGERS, our annual publication on the Clemson football team. It is the largest ever printed — 108 pages.

We hope you will see Clemson in action as much as possible this fall. We will honor requests for working press, radio and photographer passes from sports editors of daily newspapers and radio and TV sports directors ONLY. These requests should be made directly to the Sports Information Office, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned.

NEW IN THIS BROCHURE

1. A listing of the highest, as well as the lowest, games for Clemson and its opponents in rushing, passing and total offense (Pages 24 through 28)
2. Pictures of the All-Clemson team from 1931-1965 (Page 82)

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. No women, other than accredited women sportswriters and Western Union operators, will be admitted in the press box at anytime. No one under 16 years of age will be admitted.

Please do not ask for more working press passes than you need. We want our press box to have as ideal working conditions as possible. You can make it more desirable for yourself and your fellow writers by not asking for press box tickets for your "traveling buddy" or "driver."

The press box is operated in accordance with recommendations of the Football Writers Association of America and the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

THE COVER

Ole Clem Tiger is enjoying himself a game of scrabble, which if you look closely, includes all of Clemson's 10 opponents this year. Clem played a sample game first involving the coaching staff. Cartoonist Phil Neel of the Birmingham Post-Herald did the art work after ye ole sports information director spent several hours and many attempts in figuring out the game.

Shutouts By and Whom . . .

In 26 seasons at Clemson, Coach Frank Howard's teams have shut out opponents 48 times (20 different teams). During the same period, Howard has seen his teams blanked on 24 occasions (13 different teams). Below is a breakdown of shutouts, both for and against.

CLEMSON SHUTOUTS (48): Presbyterian 10; N. C. State 7; Wake Forest 5; South Carolina 4; Virginia 3; The Citadel, Auburn, North Carolina and Furman, twice each; Wofford, George Washington, Virginia Military, Virginia Tech, Duquesne, Missouri, Boston College, Maryland, Rice, Duke and Texas Christian, once each.

OPPONENTS' SHUTOUTS (25): Maryland 5; South Carolina and Georgia Tech, 3 each; Miami (Fla.), Auburn, North Carolina and N. C. State, twice each; Tulane, Virginia Military, George Washington, Georgia, Louisiana State and Duke, once each.

Outlook For 1966 . . .

Clemson is in good shape as far as starters returning are concerned, the Tigers have a more than usual number lettermen returning (mainly brought about by the two platoon), but Coach Frank Howard has also carved himself out a whale of a schedule!

It could be the Tigers are starting back up the ladder of success. After a 3-7 season two years ago, they bounced back to a 5-5 last season, and should have deserved better faith. The last three games were lost by a total of 11 points.

From the offense last fall, Clemson lost just three players. Quarterback Thomas Ray gained more yards passing than any senior in Clemson history. Tailback Hugh Mauldin led the conference in rushing, and tackle Johnny Boyette provided more than one key block.

Three are missing, but they were three good ones. Jimmy Addison will step in to replace Ray and there is no reason why he can't get the job done. He has a lot going for him.

Stepping in Mauldin's old spot is Buddy Gore, the only sophomore on the starting unit, but the fastest back at Clemson in over a decade. Gore, who was sidelined with a broken hand last fall, could have meant victory instead of defeat in about three games in the estimation of Howard.

Going from 195 to 230 in a year's time is Larry Keys, who will fill the gap left by Boyette and it is felt he can do the job.

Returning are center Randy Smith, guards Mike Facciolo and Harry Olszewski, tackle Wayne Mass and ends Wayne Bell and Edgar McGee. Look for Mass to be one of the best tackles in the country and for the entire offensive line to have more speed.

Going with Addison and Gore in the backfield are Phil Rogers and Bo Ruffner, both starters as sophomores. Ruffner is the leading rusher returning while Rogers was the top pass catcher with 36 receptions.

The defensive unit has seven of 11 starters back, but three of these were the heart of the line—the middle guard and two linebackers. There will be sophomore replacements for this trio and they will have to get tough early.

Tackles Mac McElmurray and Floyd Rogers and ends Joey Branton and Butch Sursavage will have to "mother" the line until it jells because of their experience.

Altogether, there are 36 sophomores on the first three units of defense and offense. But they gained a winning spirit on last year's undefeated (4-0-1) freshman team and should blend with the lettermen with no great difficulty.

First Undefeated Team . . .

This was Clemson's first undefeated football team. It's the 1900 aggregation which ran roughshod over six opponents under the leadership of the late John Heisman. J. N. Walker was captain of the team which defeated Davidson 64-0, Wofford 21-0, South Carolina 51-0, Georgia 39-5, Virginia Tech 12-5 and Alabama 35-0, This was Heisman's first year at Clemson and he was to remain through the 1903 season. His record in four years was 19-3-2 and his teams ran up 731 points to 93 for the opponents.

Heisman's ingenuity in originating plays was one of his strong points. He usually had something new up his sleeve for every game.

John Heisman truly put Clemson on the football map.

Clemson IPTAY Club

IPTAY begins it 33rd year of operation September 1, 1966. This Clemson scholarship club has reaped many benefits for athletes down through the years, but most important of all is the education afforded each one who accepts a grant-in-aid.

IPTAY—I Pay Ten A Year—was born for just one purpose—to finance athletic scholarships at Clemson. That is still the way IPTAY is run today. The money received during the past 32 years has been used for scholarships and scholarships only. No other use is made of the money.

The club is the backbone of athletics at Clemson, supporting all sports—baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track. Without IPTAY, Clemson would be unable to compete successfully with other teams of the Atlantic Coast Conference and other intersectional schools.

IPTAY is no exclusive or secret club such as the founders had thoughts of its being. Anyone, regardless of alma mater or age, can become a member. The men, women and children who are a part of IPTAY are interested in seeing the Clemson Tigers retain a high ranking in their athletic endeavors.

As close as can be determined, there were 185 people who were members of IPTAY during that first year of 1934-35. Sixty-one of these are now deceased and of the 124 others, 79, or 63.7% are still members today.

Although there are several versions as to just how IPTAY started, a letter written by the late Dr. Rupert H. (Rube) Fike—the father of IPTAY—to Coach Jess Neely dated Aug. 21, 1934, seems to pretty well pinpoint the exact date of formation. Dr. Fike said in his opening statement of the letter:

"Last night we had a little meeting out at my house (in Atlanta) and organized the IPTAY Club." He went on to say that those attending the meeting were George Suggs, Gene Cox, E. L. Hutchins, Bill Dukes, J. R. Pennell, George Klugh, Milton Berry, Jack Mitchell and himself.

The formation of IPTAY was done not after an undefeated season, but after the Tigers had won just seven games (losing 17, tieing 5) in the past three seasons. These men realized the Tigers needed help and their labor soon paid off.

For the next eight seasons, Clemson had break even or better campaigns and had been to its first post-season bowl game. Since IPTAY was formed the Tigers have had 24 out of 32 seasons at .500 or better and have been to six more bowl games.

IPTAY is an investment in Clemson and in the players who represent the school in athletics.

The Century Club . . .

Fifteen coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. The "Century Club" saw five members enter last year and two retire. Coach Frank Howard is third-ranked for the most years as a head coach (behind Warren B. Woodson of New Mexico State and Jess Neely of Rice) while Howard and Neely have been head coaches at one institution longer than anyone else. Both start their 27th year at one school in 1966. Howard ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

A Note On Clemson . . .

Clemson is located in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, 30 miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains on Highways 123, 76 and 28, and 12 miles from Interstate 85.

Clemson became a reality Nov. 27, 1889 when the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson.

Clemson gave his Fort Hill Estate to the State for the establishment of an agricultural and mechanical college. Clemson himself was a distinguished scientist of his day and served as the nation's first superintendent (now secretary) of agriculture.

He married the daughter of John C. Calhoun, the noted Southern statesman. Calhoun's home stands restored on the Clemson campus today and is open to the public free of charge.

The school has grown from its first 446 students to the present day enrollment of over 5,000. The campus proper contains over 25,000 acres and is situated on the shores of Hartwell Lake, a 60,000-acre expanse with over 900 miles of shoreline.

From the time the school was established until July 1, 1964, the name was Clemson College. Through an act passed by the South Carolina General Assembly, the name of the institution is now Clemson University.

Dr. Robert Cook Edwards, who was first appointed acting president in 1958 following the sudden death of Dr. Robert Franklin Poole, was named president in 1959. At the time of his appointment, Dr. Edwards was head of the university's Department of Development.

Under the post-war administrations of Drs. Poole and Edwards, the Clemson physical plant has grown to meet the rapidly rising needs of the university.

Nearly 17 million dollars in new construction has either just been completed, presently under construction, or expected to be started in the near future.

The new library, addition to the chemistry building and two men's dormitories are in the final completion stages. Scheduled to get underway during the 1966-67 school year are a new high-rise dormitory, coliseum, new classroom building, engineering research building, hospital and cafeteria. Other new buildings will begin as soon as monies become available.

The university is composed of six schools or colleges: College of Agriculture and Biological Sciences, College of Arts and Sciences, School of Architecture, College of Engineering, School of Industrial Management and Textile Science, and School of Education.

There are 36 curriculums at the university for undergraduates with graduate work toward a master's degree offered in 33 fields. There are now 21 programs leading to a doctorate degree.

A Brief Flash Back . . .

Clemson puts on the field this fall its 71st football team and its 27th under Frank Howard.

The Tigers have now played 611 intercollegiate football games, winning 330 and scoring 9,778 points. Howard himself has head coached 41.7% (or 255) of the 611 played.

Of the 330 triumphs Clemson has achieved on the gridiron, the veteran Howard claims 145, and he ranks sixth in the nation among the active coaches with 100 or more wins.

Clemson has been to six post-season bowl games under Howard and the Tigers went to another under Jess Neely. The Tigers have a 4-3 bowl record and the seven appearances are more than any other Atlantic Coast Conference school. In each game Clemson was the underdog.

An early brochure on football at Clemson states that a group of students met in the barracks in Sept., 1896, and organized the first Football Association at Clemson and requested Prof. W. M. Riggs, who was later to become Clemson president, to coach the team.

Prof. Riggs, who had played football at Auburn during his student days, was well equipped to guide the team through its formative period. This is attested by the success of the two seasons he coached and his leadership during the next quarter of a century as head of the Athletic Association at Clemson and an official of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. This went a long ways in making football the leading sport at Clemson.

The Tigers were 11-6 through the first four seasons, but it wasn't until John Heisman appeared in 1900 that Clemson became known as a football power.

Heisman teams in four years won 19, lost 3 and tied 2 while scoring 731 points and holding opponents to 92. Heisman went on to greater heights at Georgia Tech and it is for him that the Heisman Trophy is named.

The Pendleton Escapade of April 1, 1908, resulted in the expulsion of 306 students, including many football players, and thoroughly demoralized football at Clemson and ushered in the so-called "dark ages", which, except for a few minor resurgencies, was to last for nearly two decades.

Josh Cody arrived in 1927 and inherited a Clemson team that had experienced five losing seasons out of the past seven. In four years Cody was 29-11-1.

Neely came in 1931 and suffered through three losing seasons before breaking even. But before he went to Rice, the Tigers had played in the 1940 Cotton Bowl and were on the way to national acclaim.

Howard has continued that reputation with a bowl record of his own and finishing .500 or better in 18 of his 26 seasons.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AND HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Frank Howard is optimistic about the prospects of his 1966 football team, but he has also rigged it a pretty tough schedule—maybe the toughest in school history.

Howard saw the Atlantic Coast Conference championship flutter from his grasp on three straight Saturday afternooons last fall when the Tigers dropped the last three games by a total of 11 points. A triumph in any of the trio would have given Clemson its fourth loop crown.

Howard

But be that as it may, Howard doesn't have time to quibble about the past. "When you start worrying about the past," he says, "you're gonna be in trouble in the future."

Howard made his third major change in his offensive sets last fall, basically swithching to the 'I' formation and running many patterns from the pro type set. This fall additional improvement and variation is expected from what was seen the first time around.

Howard will be in his 27th season as head coach of the Tigers this fall and it'll be his 36th on the Clemson staff. When Jess Neely retires at Rice at the end of the 1966 season, Howard will be tops in the nation for being head coach at one institution longer than any one else.

Howard has been connected with intercollegiate football 39 years—four as an undergraduate at Alabama, nine as line coach at Clemson and 26 as head coach of the Tigers.

In these nearly four decades as a player-coach, Howard has been connected with 368 intercollegiate football games and he has been on the winning side in 210 of these.

Howard's bowl travels have carried him to eight of the post-season classics. He is one of 12 active coaches with 100 or more victories. Only five coaches have won more.

He has coached in most of the post-season all-star games. His summer clinic trips have carried him to all parts of the United States and Europe. And IBM would have a hard time keeping up with his banquet and after-dinner speeches.

The 57-year-old Howard lives and breathes football 365 days of the year. It's been his life's work.

Goodrich

Williams

Clemson Radio Network . . .

Clemson football fans heard two new phrases last season from play-by-play announcer Bill Goodrich. The "mercy" and "whoop-e-e" were his trademarks at Old Miss and he brought them with him to South Carolina.

This year Goodrich will be joined for the color end by Pat Williams, popular general manager of the Spartanburg Phillies of the Western Carolinas League, who in his 26 years, has seen, played and broadcast a lot of sports.

Goodrich is sports director of WFBC-TV and Radio in Greenville. He broadcast the Ole Miss games for seven years prior to coming to his present post, and has been heard on as many as 275 stations on one broadcast.

A 21-year veteran in radio and 11 years of television experience, Goodrich was no stranger to South Carolina sports fans.

While located with WORD in Spartanburg in the early '50's he did Wofford football and basketball and also play-by-play of the Spartanburg Peaches of the old Tri-State League. Later moving to WSPA-TV for two years, he handled the Clemson football films during 1956 and 1957 and broadcast the '55-'56 Tiger basketball games.

Williams graduated from Wake Forest where he was the varsity baseball catcher for three years and was on the ACC championship club of 1962.

The new color man received his masters degree at Indiana in 1964 and while there, broadcast football and basketball for two years over the Indiana University Sports Network. Last year Williams broadcast on the Wake Forest football and basketball networks.

Williams has been general manager of the Phillie farm club since Feb., 1965, and with a seventh place club, led Class A baseball in attendance. This year the Phillies established a new Class A record long before the season was over.

The Clemson network, operated wholly by the athletic department, has been one of the most successful anywhere. It is one of the nation's largest collegiate networks, having averaged slightly over 50 stations a game for the past five seasons.

Burns Shockley Haralson

Photography Facilities Tops . . .

A photographer covering a football game at Clemson will find almost every facility needed to adequately fill his boss' desires.

With chief photographer Jim Burns and his assistants Charles Haralson and Tom Shockley on hand, equipment, space, chemicals and game action pictures are available to visiting photographers.

A 27-foot open section on the second deck of the press box is reserved for visiting and home team movies. If there is remaining space, TV film is also shot from this point. If not, still photographers, as well as movies, have at their disposal the entire roof, which stretches over 30 yards.

Within the press box is a complete dark room where film can be loaded, processed and wire photos transmitted during the game.

Burns and Haralson take game movies, running two cameras (one for coaches and one for TV). The necessary number of prints are made for scouting, exchange with other schools and showing at alumni gatherings.

Shockley shoots game action from the field during the first half to distribute at the end of the game.

The Clemson press box is the only one in the Atlantic Coast Conference (and one of the few in the nation) equipped with a Fotorite machine for rapid print processing. This unit enable pictures of the game to be printed within minutes after being taken.

Any newspaper or TV station desiring to receive this service can do so simply by requesting it. At the end of the game a set of game action pictures (usually six to eight) is brought to the individual at his working space for use in either Sunday or Monday newspaper editions, or on late Saturday night TV shows.

This has proved to be a highly popular feature with those covering Clemson's home games and it will again be offered this coming season. Last year 457 pictures were distributed at the four home games and in four seasons, 1,681 pictures have been given free.

The coordinating services of Burns, Haralson and Shockley is just another reason why the Clemson press box has received the two highest awards from the Football Writers Association of America.

1966-67 Basketball Outlook . . .

If all goes according to plan, the 1966-67 basketball team will be the last one to play in the present field house.

By this time next year, construction should just about be complete on the multipurpose coliseum which will seat nearly 11,000 for basketball games.

Coach Bobby Roberts, fielding his fifth team this coming fall, has three starters returning, which includes all of the height from a year ago. Randy Mahaffey, Jim Sutherland and Ken Gardner are all 6-5 or better.

Replacements will have to be found for leading scorer Garry Helms and peppery little guard and captain, Buddy Benedict.

Sutherland is the leading point getter (16.7) returning while Mahaffey was third in scoring (14.2) last year and leader (10.2) in rebounds. Gardner was a 12.2 scorer and an 8.7 rebounder.

Help will come from Curt Eckard, Denny Danko and Dave Demsey, all red shirts a year ago. Eckard led the 64-65 frosh with a 20.6 average and Demsey had 13.5.

Advancing from last year's freshman team are Jack Swails (11.1), Alan Goldfarb (5.5), Trip Jones (15.9), Richie Mahaffey (18.4) and Dick Thomas (13.8). Richie is the last of the four Mahaffey brothers to play for the Tigers.

The Tigers have scheduled a 24-game slate which includes all ACC teams, Furman and Georgia Tech twice; Citadel and Virginia Tech in single games; plus two Christmas tournaments.
